

BONA5DCC, established in 2008, was incepted to provide real solutions for financial literacy, personal money management, and credit education with the infusion of self-leadership and self-esteem to groups and individuals of various demographics and various agencies (such as women, governmental and military agencies, churches, educational institutions, etc.). It is our vision to equip our community with the knowledge necessary to positively impact their lives while improving and securing their financial futures.

Since 2008, BONA5DCC has provided knowledge to clients in Florida, Georgia, and Texas to name a few with participants ranging from unemployed to professionals to military and everything in between.

Our sessions are designed to provide an in-depth understanding of financial risks as well as resources and practical application of improved financial literacy. The knowledge delivered to participants in our dynamic, easy to understand sessions provide tools to make key fiscal improvements which help to develop healthier, more vibrant, stress-free lives. Additionally, it enables participants to enhance their financial circumstances to "FUEL THEIR FINANCIAL POTENTIAL" via the 5 E's to excellence:

EDUCATE: provide tools that can be used immediately to strengthen fiscal health and impact their physical health

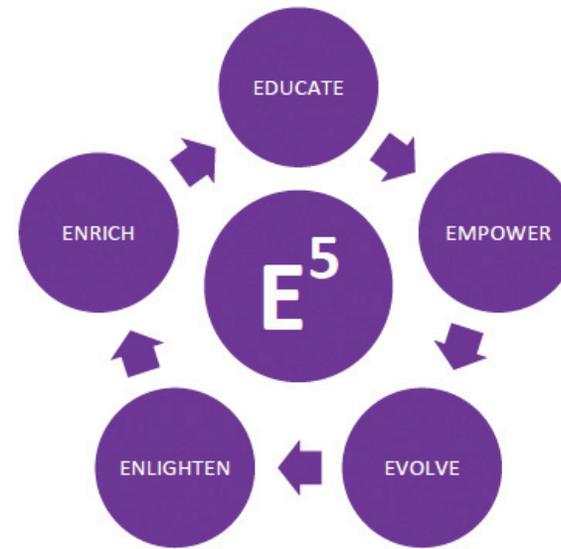

EMPOWER: enable participants to take control of their financial destiny

EVOLVE: equip individuals to make the gradual changes for lasting impact

ENLIGHTEN: impart transformational insight

ENRICH: unleash the abundant wealth knowledge brings
